Three Models of Specialized Domestic Violence Courts in Canada

Jurisdiction	Goals	Features	Outcomes
Winnipeg (1990)	(1) expedite court processing (2) increase victim cooperation and reduce case attrition (3) provide appropriate sentencing.	- handles elder and child abuse as well as spousal abuse - specialized prosecutors, a women's advocacy and child victim/witness program, specially designed courtrooms 5 full-time crowns, one full-time judge plus part-time judges	- success with expedited case processing and appropriate sentencing (2.8 months for spousal case to go to trial; 5 months for child abuse) - more serious sentences (increase in incarceration, decrease in rates of conditional discharge; most common sentence probation, 58% 2 years or longer increase in guilty pleas
Ontario (1997-98)	(1) intervene early in DV situations; (2) provide better support to victims (3) more effectively prosecute cases of DV (4) enhance offender accountability.	- early intervention stream and specialized prosecution stream - elements: Victim/Witness Assistance Program; Partner Assault Response Program; specialized Crown; judges on rotation early intervention: can plead guilty early on and be referred to treatment as a condition of bail; successful completion a mitigating factor in	Outcomes from specialized prosecution stream: 83% of cases proceeding to trial dealt with by guilty plea; offenders fast-tracked to treatment; more thorough police investigations; more positive attitude of Crown

- specialized prosecution: very thorough police investigations lead to increase in guilty pleas; dedicated team of prosecutors. Yukon (2000) (1) reduce the amount of DV in the community (2) reduce the negative impact on victims and children. and children. (2) reduce the negative impact on victims and children. The probability of the community (2) reduce the negative impact on victims and children. The probability pleases collapsed, of cases collapsed, since DVTO 75% of offenders are entering a guilty plea and receiving treatment; 80% going through extensive court supervised treatment program. The probability please and be referred to treatment as condition of bail offender monitored regularly by court and judge throughout bail and probation.			sentencing thorough police investigations lead to increase in guilty pleas; dedicated team of prosecutors. Yukon (2000) (1) reduce the amount of DV in the community (2) reduce the negative impact on victims and children. The properties of the properties o			_ investigations lead to increase in guilty pleas; dedicated team of prosecutors. Yukon (2000) (1) reduce the amount of DV in the community (2) reduce the negative impact on victims and children. Treatment court, similar to drug courts of cases collapsed, since DVTO 75% of offenders are entering a guilty plea and receiving treatment; 80% going through extensive court supervised treatment and relapse prevention for offenders - offender given the opportunity to enter early guilty plea and be referred to treatment as condition of bail offender monitored regularly by court and judge throughout bail and			- to increase in guilty pleas; dedicated team of prosecutors. Yukon (2000) (1) reduce the amount of DV in the community (2) reduce the negative impact on victims and children. (2) reduce the negative impact on victims and children. (2) reduce the negative impact on victims and children. (2) reduce the negative impact on victims and children. (2) reduce the negative impact on victims and children. (2) reduce the negative impact on victims and children. (2) reduce the negative impact on victims and children. (2) reduce the negative impact on victims and children. (2) reduce the negative impact on victims and children. (2) reduce the negative impact on victims and children. (2) reduce the negative courts in not diversion of offenders are entering a guilty plea and receiving treatment; 80% going through extensive court supervised treatment program. (2) reduce the negative impact on victims advocacy entering a guilty plea and receiving treatment; 80% going through extensive court supervised treatment program. (3) retention in the Spousal Abuse Treatment Program (4) retention of bail offender monitored regularly by court and judge throughout bail and (4) reduce the negative is milled to drug of cases collapsed, since DVTO 75% of Yukon (2000) (1) reduce the amount of DV in the community (2) reduce the negative impact on victims and children. (2000) (2
Yukon (2000) (1) reduce the amount of DV in the community (2) reduce the negative impact on victims and children. (2) reduce the negative impact on victims and children. (2) reduce the negative impact on victims and children. (2) reduce the negative impact on victims and children. (2) reduce the negative impact on victims and children. (2) reduce the negative impact on victims and children. (2) reduce the negative impact on victims and children. (3) reduce the negative similar to drug courts since DVTO 75% of offenders are entering a guilty plea and receiving treatment; 80% going through extensive court supervised treatment program. (3) reduce the negative similar to drug courts since DVTO 75% of offenders are entering a guilty plea and receiving treatment; 80% going through extensive court supervised treatment program. (4) reduce the negative similar to drug courts since DVTO 75% of offenders are entering a guilty plea and receiving treatment; 80% going through extensive court supervised treatment program. (4) reduce the negative similar to drug courts since DVTO 75% of offenders are entering a guilty plea and receiving treatment; 80% going through extensive court supervised treatment program. (4) reduce the negative similar to drug courts and pullea and receiving treatment; 80% going through extensive court supervised treatment program. (4) reduce the negative similar to drug courts and pullea and program real program and receiving treatment; 80% going through extensive court supervised treatment program. (4) reduce the negative similar to drug courts and pullea and program real pullea and progr
Yukon (2000) (1) reduce the amount of DV in the community (2) reduce the negative impact on victims and children. (2000) (2			* ' amount of DV in the community (2) reduce the negative impact on victims and children. similar to drug courts since DVTO 75% of offenders are entering a guilty plea and receiving treatment and relapse prevention for offenders - offender given the opportunity to enter early guilty plea and be referred to treatment as condition of bail - offender monitored regularly by court and judge throughout bail and amount of DV in the community (2) reduce the negative courts - it is not diversion offenders are entering a guilty plea and receiving treatment; 80% going through extensive court supervised treatment program almost 100% retention in the Spousal Abuse Treatment Program - First Nations individuals and communities support DVTO community (2) reduce the negative impact on victims and children. courts - it is not diversion - involved, dedicated Judges; designated Crown; Defense; probation; victim advocacy - substantial treatment and relapse prevention for offenders - offender given the opportunity to enter early guilty plea and be referred to treatment as condition of bail - offender monitored regularly by court and judge throughout bail and courts - it is not diversion offenders are entering a guilty plea and receiving treatment; 80% going through extensive court supervised treatment program almost 100% retention in the Spousal Abuse Treatment Program - First Nations individuals and communities support DVTO		(1) reduce the	-treatment court,	- before DVTO 75% reduce the negative impact on victims and children. - it is not diversion - involved, dedicated Judges; designated Crown; Defense; probation; victim advocacy - substantial treatment and relapse prevention for offenders - offender given the opportunity to enter early guilty plea and be referred to treatment as condition of bail - offender monitored regularly by court and judge throughout bail and offenders are entering a guilty plea and receiving treatment; 80% going through extensive court supervised treatment program almost 100% retention in the Spousal Abuse Treatment Program - First Nations individuals and communities support DVTO	(2000)	amount of DV in the	similar to drug	of cases collapsed, impact on victims and children. - involved, dedicated Judges; designated Crown; Defense; probation; victim advocacy - substantial treatment and relapse prevention for offenders - offender given the opportunity to enter early guilty plea and be referred to treatment as condition of bail - offender monitored regularly by court and judge throughout bail and - involved, dedicated Judges; designated Crown; Defense; probation; victim advocacy extensive court supervised treatment program almost 100% retention in the Spousal Abuse Treatment Program - First Nations individuals and communities support DVTO		community (2)		since DVTO 75% of and children. dedicated Judges; designated Crown; Defense; probation; victim advocacy - substantial treatment and relapse prevention for offenders - offender given the opportunity to enter early guilty plea and be referred to treatment as condition of bail - offender monitored regularly by court and judge throughout bail and plea and receiving treatment; 80% going through extensive court supervised treatment program almost 100% retention in the Spousal Abuse Treatment Program - First Nations individuals and communities support DVTO		reduce the negative	- it is not diversion	offenders are designated Crown; Defense; probation; victim advocacy - substantial treatment and relapse prevention for offenders - offender given the opportunity to enter early guilty plea and be referred to treatment as condition of bail - offender monitored regularly by court and judge throughout bail and treatment; 80% going through extensive court supervised treatment program almost 100% retention in the Spousal Abuse Treatment Program - First Nations individuals and communities support DVTO		impact on victims	- involved,	entering a guilty Defense; probation; victim advocacy - substantial treatment and relapse prevention for offenders - offender given the opportunity to enter early guilty plea and be referred to treatment as condition of bail - offender monitored regularly by court and judge throughout bail and guge going through extensive court supervised treatment program almost 100% retention in the Spousal Abuse Treatment Program - First Nations individuals and communities support DVTO		and children.	dedicated Judges;	plea and receiving victim advocacy - substantial treatment and relapse prevention for offenders - offender given the opportunity to enter early guilty plea and be referred to treatment as condition of bail - offender monitored regularly by court and judge throughout bail and			designated Crown;	treatment; 80%
- substantial treatment and relapse prevention for offenders - offender given the opportunity to enter early guilty plea and be referred to treatment as condition of bail - offender monitored regularly by court and judge throughout bail and supports deteratment program almost 100% retention in the Spousal Abuse Treatment Program - First Nations individuals and communities support DVTO			Defense; probation;	going through treatment and relapse prevention for offenders			victim advocacy	extensive court relapse prevention for offenders - offender given the opportunity to enter early guilty plea and be referred to treatment as condition of bail - offender monitored regularly by court and judge throughout bail and - almost 100% retention in the Spousal Abuse Treatment Program - First Nations individuals and communities support DVTO			- substantial	supervised treatment for offenders - offender given the opportunity to enter early guilty plea and be referred to treatment as condition of bail - offender monitored regularly by court and judge throughout bail and retention in the Spousal Abuse Treatment Program - First Nations individuals and communities support DVTO			treatment and	program.
- offender given the opportunity to enter early guilty plea and be referred to treatment as condition of bail - offender monitored regularly by court and judge throughout bail and			relapse prevention	- almost 100% opportunity to enter early guilty plea and be referred to treatment as condition of bail offender monitored regularly by court and judge throughout bail and			for offenders	retention in the early guilty plea and be referred to treatment as condition of bail - offender monitored regularly by court and judge throughout bail and - First Nations individuals and communities support DVTO			- offender given the	Spousal Abuse be referred to treatment as condition of bail - offender monitored regularly by court and judge throughout bail and			opportunity to enter	Treatment Program treatment as communities support DVTO - offender monitored regularly by court and judge throughout bail and			early guilty plea and	- First Nations condition of bail - offender monitored regularly by court and judge throughout bail and			be referred to	individuals and
- offender monitored regularly by court and judge throughout bail and			treatment as	communities
- offender monitored regularly by court and judge throughout bail and			condition of bail	support DVTO by court and judge throughout bail and			- offender	 by court and judge throughout bail and			monitored regularly throughout bail and
			, , , , , , , , ,
			1	